U.S. FIGHTER JETS - DVD

America's Fighter Jets has been added to the popular Topics Entertainment exclusive video products line. The 2-DVD "Doubleshot" Collector's Set includes: Jets of the U.S. Air Force Climb in the cockpit of an F-15 Eagle or an F-16 Viper and fly off into the wild blue yonder. Experience the world of the U.S. Air Force combat pilot as you fly high over the arctic tundra monitoring Russian bombers and ride along in the cockpit over the sweltering desert of Iraq. Filled with wing to wing flying, strike missions and intensive training, you'll see what it's really like to be a sky warrior. Jets of the U.S. Navy and Marines They say it's the most heart pounding flying in the world with a zero margin for error and few chances to get it right. Journey from a little known base in the Nevada desert to the hostile skies on the other side of the world as you join the real "Top Guns" and streak through the skies in an F-14 Tomcat or F/A-18 Hornet. You'll witness the intense training naval aviators endure long before ever heading to sea and the skill required to make contact with a pitching carrier deck in the middle of the ocean. Total runtime approximately 2 hours. P/N 13-06256

GHOSTS 2010 CALENDARS

P/N 13-01318

P/N 13-06012

Renowned aviation photographer Philip Makanna has captured the essence of this era in his GHOSTS of The Great War and A Time Remembered -2010, a large-format calendar that features his stunning, air-to-air, color photographs.

Makanna has spent 32 years taking aviation photography to amazing heights. In this edition, his images depict the beginnings of military aviation with Bleriot's wing-warping Model XI, Fokker's "Spider", a web of wires and wood, and Sopwith's simple seaplane racer. The calendar continues through to the advanced aircraft that appeared at the war's end.

Stunning images and an evocative day-by-day history of the aviation (and related) events of the period combine to describe the beauty, the romance and the tragedy of military aviation's early days.
